The authors of Hsieh et al. (2014) have supplied the following corrections to their article.

In Figure 2A the image data of control in Huh7 at 2 and 6 h were incorrect. Additionally, Figure 2D contains the incorrect migration image data in Sk-Hep-1. Figure 3E contains the incorrect beta-actin panels. Finally, Figure 7B and 7C contain the incorrect control images in Sk-Hep-1.

All of the errors were made during the preparation of the manuscript. The authors apologise for these errors. The corrected Figure parts 2A, 2D, 3E, 7B and 7C are provided below:
